PREAMBLE

Related Party Transaction Policy is adopted by the Board of Directors of Intec Capital Limited (hereinafter referred to as "Company or "ICL") pursuant to the compliances under the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 and Clause 49(VII) of the Equity Listing Agreement;

Clause 49(VII) of equity listing agreement prescribes that:

- A. Related party "transaction" is a transfer of resources, services or obligations between a company and a related party, regardless of whether a price is charged.

Explanation: A "transaction" shall be construed to include single transaction or a group of transactions in a contract

- B. For the purpose of Clause 49 (VII), an entity shall be considered as related to the Company if

(i) Such entity is a related party under Section 2(76) of the Companies Act, 2013; or

(ii) Such entity is a related party under the applicable accounting standards.

- C. The company shall formulate a policy on materiality of related party transactions and also on dealing with Related Party Transactions.

Company Act, 2013 also specifies that (pursuant to section 188 read with Rule 15 of The Companies (Meetings of Board and its Powers), Rules, 2014) subject to a resolution passed by Board at a meeting of the Board of Directors and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, no Company shall enter into any contract or arrangement with related party.

Further, Related Party Transaction are part of Strategic matters as ascribed under Article 124A of Articles of Association of the Company which are required to be approved in terms of requirement as provided under Article 124A of Articles of Association of the Company and as per other provisions of applicable laws. ICL recognizes that certain relationships can present potential or actual conflicts of interest and may raise questions about whether transactions associated with such relationships are consistent with Company's and its Stakeholders' best interest.

The Company must specifically ensure that certain Related Party Transactions are managed and disclosed in accordance with the strict legal and accounting requirements to which the Company is subject.

The Audit Committee will review and may amend this policy from time to time.
